The lawful basis we process your data by	We comply with our obligations under the GDPR and DPA 2018 By keeping personal data up to date; By storing and destroying it securely;

By not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data;

By protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

By ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

In most cases the lawful basis for processing will be through the performance of a contract for personal data of our adult volunteers and legitimate interest for personal data of our youth members.

Sensitive (special category) data for both adult volunteers and our youth members will mostly align to the lawful basis of legitimate activities of an association.

Explicit consent is requested from parents/guardians to take photographs of our members.

On occasion we may use legitimate interest to process photographs where it is not practical to gather and maintain consent such as large-scale events. On such occasions we will make it clear that this activity will take place and give individuals the opportunity to exercise their data subject rights.

We use personal data for the following purposes:

To provide information about Scout meetings, activities, training courses and events to our members and other volunteers in 1st Honiton Scout Group.

To provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution.

To administer membership records.

To fund raise and promote the interests of Scouting.

To manage our volunteers.

	To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications). To inform you of news, events, activities and services being run or attended by 1st Honiton Scout Group. To ensure and evidence your suitability if volunteering for a role in Scouting. To contact your next of kin in the event of an emergency. To ensure you have and maintain the correct qualifications and skills. We use personal sensitive (special) data for the following purposes: For the protection of a person's health and safety whilst in the care of 1st Honiton Scout Group. To respect a person's religious beliefs with regards to activities, food and holidays. For equal opportunity monitoring and reporting.
Our retention periods Sharing your information	We will keep certain types of information for different periods of time. Our retention policy is to dispose of the information safely and correctly once we no longer need to have it. Young people and other data subjects: We will normally only share personal information with adult volunteers holding an appointment in the 1st Honiton Scout Group. Adult volunteers We will normally only share personal information with adult volunteers holding appropriate appointments within the line management structure of The Scout Association for the 1st Honiton Scout Group as well as with The Scout Association Headquarters as data controllers in common.

How we store your personal data	All data subjects We will however share your personal information with others outside of the 1st Honiton Scout Group where we need meet a legal obligation. This may include The Scout Association and its insurance subsidiary (Unity Insurance Services), local authority services and law enforcement. We will only share your personal information to the extent needed for those purposes. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the organisation where there is a legitimate reason to do so. We will never sell your personal information to any third party. Sometimes we may nominate a member for national awards, (such as Scouting awards or Duke of Edinburgh awards) such nominations would require us to provide contact details to that organisation. Where personal data is shared with third parties we will seek assurances that your personal data will be kept confidential and that the third party fully complies with the GDPR and DPA 2018. We generally store personal information in the following ways: Compass - is the online membership system of The Scout Association, this system is used for the collection and storage of adult volunteer personal data. OSM – is the Online Scouting Manager which we use for personal details, sending emails and badge records etc. In addition adult volunteers will hold some personal data on local spreadsheets/databases.

	Printed records and data held while attending events - paper is sometimes used to capture and retain some data for example: Gift Aid administration. Event registration Health and contact record forms (for events). Events co-ordination with event organisers. Paper records for events are used rather than relying on secure digital systems, as often the events are held where internet and digital access will not be available. We will minimise the use of paper to only what is required for the event.
Further processing	If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
How we provide this privacy notice	A printed version is also available on request.

Your rights	As a Data Subject, you have the right to object to how we process your personal information. You also have the right to access, correct, sometimes delete and restrict the personal information we use. In addition, you have a right to complain to us and to the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.org.uk). Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR and DPA 2018, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: The right to be informed – you have a right to know how your data will be used by us. The right to access your personal data – you can ask us to share with you the data we have about you. This is a Data Subject Access Request. The right to rectification – this just means you can update your data if it's inaccurate or if something is missing. Adult members will be able to edit and update some information directly on The Scout Association's Compass membership system. The right to erasure – this means that you have the right to request that we delete any personal data we have about you. There are some exceptions, for example, some information will be held by The Scout Association for legal reasons. The right to restrict processing – if you think that we are not processing your data in line with this privacy notice then you have the right to restrict any further use of that data until the issue is resolved. The right to data portability – this means that if you ask us we will have to share your data with you in a way that can be read digitally – such as a pdf. This makes it easier to share information with others. The right to object – you can object to the ways your data is being used. Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling – this protects you in cases where decision are being made about you based entirely on automated processes rather than a human input, it's highly unlikely that this will be used by us.
